

ARMS AND CHURCH OF CLARE.

For a long period Shalford was held under the Honour of Clare ; Gilbert, Earl of Clare and Gloucester, in 1295 died possessed of it. The Honour of Clare reverted to the Crown on the marriage of Elizabeth, daughter of Ed. IV., to Henry VII. It was afterwards settled by Henry VIII. on Catherine of Arragon, his Queen.